15th Annual Django Reinhardt Festival

*January 19-21, Arts Fifth Avenue
(1628 5th Avenue, Fort Worth, TX 76104)*

Arts Fifth Avenue proudly presents their 15th annual Django Reinhardt Festival - three nights of film, food, music and French ambience honoring the life of legendary gypsy jazz guitarist, Django Reinhardt. Reinhardt was a Belgian-born, Romani French jazz guitarist and composer, regarded as one of the greatest musicians of the twentieth century. He was the first jazz talent to emerge from Europe and remains the most significant by far. Reinhardt lost most control of two fingers on his left hand in a fire in his youth. He developed a modified technique to overcome this disability and went on to forge an entirely new 'hot' jazz guitar style, now known as gypsy jazz, or jazz manouche, that remains a musical tradition in France and neighboring countries—especially within Gypsy culture. Reinhardt's innovations on the guitar helped elevate it above its prior position as usually only a rhythm instrument. For more information, visit www.artsfifthavenue.org.

Salvador Dali Exhibit Through January 14, Arlington Museum of Art

(201 W Main St, Arlington, TX 76010)

The Arlington Museum of Art hosts an exhibit of Salvador Dali, a well-known Spanish artist who was one of the leading figures in the Surrealism movement. He was a master and a virtuoso who was gifted with dazzling skills and techniques. He was a painter, designer, sculptor, writer and set designer as well as a master engraver who could produce equally outstanding work in dry point, etching, woodcut or lithography. For more information, call 817-275-4600 or visit www.arlingtonmuseum.org.

Dallas Vert Mile Stairclimb

*January 13 at Reunion Tower
(300 Reunion Blvd. E., Dallas, TX 75207)*

The Dallas Vert Mile is a world-class stair climb race and fun walk at Reunion Tower. It is one of only three stair climbs in the United States and 12 worldwide to be part of the Tower Running World Association's World Tour, and it brings some of the best stair runners on the planet to Dallas.

The race is also open to the public, and there are four vertical or vert distances available. All participants do the Vert Sprint Race and Fun Walk, which climbs 50 floors and 470 feet. You may also do the three-lap Vert 1/4 Mile; six-lap Vert 1/2 Mile; or the 12-lap, 600-story, Vert Mile Challenge. The challenge is to finish all 12 laps within the 2 1/2 hour time limit.

The event will benefit participants, who will get stronger, fitter, and happier, along with a number of non-profit organizations. Registration is $20-$80. To purchase, call 435-901-3808 or visit www.vertmile.com.

January 17-21, Bass Performance Hall
 Welcome to the '90s—the 1590s—long before the dawn of premium tickets, star casting and reminders to turn off your cell phones. Brothers Nick and Nigel Bottom (Tony nominee Rob McClure and Broadway's Josh Griseti) are desperate to write a hit play but are stuck in the shadow of that Renaissance rock star known as "The Bard" (Tony nominee Adam Pascal). When a local soothsayer foretells the future of theatre involves singing, dancing and acting at the same time, Nick and Nigel set out to write the world's very first MUSICAL! Amidst the scandalous excitement of Opening Night, the Bottom Brothers realize that reaching the top means being true to thine own self... and all that jazz. With its heart on its ruffled sleeve and sequins in its soul, Something Rotten! is an uproarious dose of pure Broadway fun and an irresistible ode to musicals—those dazzling creations that entertain us, inspire us, and remind us that everything's better with an exclamation point! From the director of Aladdin and the co-director of The Book of Mormon, Something Rotten! is "Broadway's big, fat hit!" (New York Post).

Please note that there is no Tuesday evening performance. Tuesday evening Season Ticket Holders will be placed into the Thursday Matinee performance with the option to exchange into another performance during the show run. Order through your concierge to save on service fees.

The Color Purple

Presented by Dallas Summer Musicals
January 23 - February 4, Music Hall at Fair Park

The Color Purple is the 2016 Tony Award winner for Best Musical Revival! Hailed as "a direct hit to the heart," this joyous American classic has conquered Broadway in an all-new "ravishingly reconceived production that is a glory to behold" directed by Tony winner John Doyle. With a soul-raising score of jazz, gospel, ragtime and blues, The Color Purple gives an exhilarating new spirit to this Pulitzer Prize-winning story. Don't miss this stunning re-imagining of an epic story about a young woman's journey to love and triumph in the American South. It's the musical sensation that New York Magazine calls "one of the greatest revivals ever." Experience the exhilarating power of this Tony-winning triumph! Contact your concierge to save on service fees.

This Random World

January 25 - February 24, Circle Theater (230 W. Fourth St, Fort Worth, TX 76102)
 Steven Dietz's heartwarming comedy, This Random World, kicks off the Circle Theatre's season. Each character's journey overlaps one another, be it an ailing woman who plans one final trip, a daughter planning one great escape or a son falling prey to a prank gone wrong. This funny and intimate play explores the lives that may be happening just out of reach of our own. Does serendipity bring us together or is that only a myth? For $5 off any regular priced ticket excluding opening night and previews, call 817-877-3848 or visit www.circletheatre.com and enter promo code: Flyer.

Neverland

February 2-18, Casa Mañana
 Thirteen-year-old Wendy's modern world is transformed before our very eyes with the help of a young boy named Peter, who shows her that there is magic all around us if we are just willing to look hard enough. Intimate and imaginative, Neverland is a retelling of the classic Peter Pan story which will inspire kids and adults of all ages to take an "Awfully Big Adventure" of their own. This show is suitable for all audiences. Contact your concierge to save on service fees.

Dallas Theater Center's Frankenstein

February 2 - March 4, Kalita Humphreys Theater (3636 Turtle Creek Blvd, Dallas, TX 75219)
 When Dr. Frankenstein's experiment goes horribly awry, he resolves to destroy the terrifying creature he has unleashed upon the world. But can he kill his own creation without becoming a monster himself? Mary Shelley's 200-year-old horror story, widely regarded as the original science fiction novel, continues to challenge the modern imagination. And after its sell-out run at London's National Theatre, Nick Dear's electrifying new adaptation, full of shocking twists and turns, is sure to keep audiences on the edge of their seats as it brings Frankenstein (and his monster) to life. Contains mature themes and brief nudity. Recommended for High School age and up. Contact your concierge for tickets – discounts apply but service fees are not waived.

Michael Cunio

February 8-10, Casa Mañana
 Michael Cunio's vocal range is in a class by itself, whether singing classics by Frank Sinatra and James Brown or rocking out to Aerosmith's "Dream On." After performing in the Tony Award hits Jersey Boys and Hairspray and with the critically-acclaimed vocal group Under the Streetlamp, Cunio set off on a booming solo career. His debut album, Back Alley Soul, pays tribute to those inspiring artists, featuring songs like "It's a Man's, Man's, Man's World" and "I Just Wanna Make Love to You." Most recently, Cunio recorded one of his concerts for a PBS special and now shows off his vocal styles at Casa Mañana for the grand opening of the Reid Cabaret Theatre. Contact your concierge to save on service fees.

The Ring of Polykrates

Presented by The Dallas Opera
February 9, 11, 14, 17, Winspear Opera House

A loving wife. A job promotion. An inheritance. With such a perfect life, how can things possibly go wrong? In The Ring of Polykrates, William Arndt is about to discover just how quickly the tables can turn. The return of his best friend, Peter, should be the icing on the cake for William's life, but Peter clearly has other plans in mind. Peter's jealousy is a worthy adversary to William's marriage, but only one can win. In this rarely performed domestic comedy by Erich Wolfgang Korngold, the stakes are high and sacrifices must be made. Paired with a performance of Korngold's magnificent Violin Concerto in D major, featuring acclaimed violinist Augustin Dumay, the evening will be a celebration of a genius who is not performed nearly enough. Contact your concierge for discounted tickets on select performances.

Dallas Black Dance Theater Presents Cultural Awareness

February 16-18, Wily Theater (2400 Flora Street, Dallas, TX 75201)

A time to embrace and celebrate cultures. Dance, poetry and a brass band are used to reflect the 12-year anniversary of Hurricane Katrina in Displaced, Yet/Rebirth. Hurricane survivor Michelle N. Gibson uses choreographic artistry to weave movement and traditions of the rich New Orleans culture she calls home. Set to traditional spirituals like "The Lord's Prayer" and "His Eye on the Sparrow," Dwight Rhoden's Testament is a dynamic and complex work that pays tribute to faith and devotion. Contact your concierge for a special promo code.

Medieval Times Dallas, TX

The Queen takes the reigns at Medieval Times! Experience an all-new show... In a major break from Medieval Times' 34-year tradition of casting a king as the show's lead role, the company announced in October 2017 that a queen would now be in charge and sole ruler of the land. She is cast as a firm but kind ruler respected throughout the kingdom who inherited the throne at the passing of her father, the previous king. The company's leadership developed the idea to cast a matriarch, based in part on guest feedback that they would like to see women having more significant roles.

Jousting, fighting, horsemanship, swordplay and a fresh, hot, four-course feast remain central elements of the dinner attraction. With the cast and script change come a series of other significant changes to the show:

- More than 700 new costumes for all nine castles' performers including horses, all of which are custom-designed and hand-made at a dedicated costume shop near Dallas Design District.
- 200 new suits of armor, shields, and helmets, all of which are custom-designed and hand-made at a dedicated armory in Florida.
- More than 350 team members and 225 horses train and rehearse new lines and fight scenes for three months while still presenting the current show.
- It takes two months to teach a queen to ride an Andalusian stallion.
- New music was composed by Dr. Daniel May, composer and jazz pianist who scored Everest and other films and who worked with Sting, The Moody Blues and others. He directed and recorded Medieval Times' new show composition in Kiev with the National Symphony Orchestra of Ukraine. He directed the choir in Ukraine with lyrics written by poet and choir member Solomia Gorokhivska, and a solo cellist and violin player from Pittsburgh, PA.
- The audience experiences a live action film score that is precisely synchronized with every element of the show, from lights to fights; jousts to jabs; the Queen's entry to curtain closings; and more.
- The sound and light team spends 120 hours programming 300 new music cues and 500 new lighting cues. Several castles are installing and programming a new LED lighting system that offers 256 colors versus the old 14-color system. The system is powered by 10 miles of cable and an estimated million-dollar upgrade.

Mourning A President

A Special Exhibit on the Funeral of John F. Kennedy, Reflecting the Day the World Stood Still

Through February 19, Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza
(411 Elm Street, Dallas, TX 75202)

One of the most visited historic sites in Texas, The Sixth Floor Museum at Dealey Plaza is featuring a must-see special temporary exhibit this season. Focused on the November 25, 1963 funeral and burial of President John F. Kennedy, Mourning A President explores how a grieving nation paid its respects and the elaborate plans of the country's most momentous funeral since Abraham Lincoln's. The Kennedy funeral left indelible impressions on millions of people around the world, from the powerful image of the president's casket in the U.S. Capitol Rotunda to the simple sadness of a young boy saluting his father one last time. The exhibit includes the 15-foot-long flag that flew at half-staff above the Senate Wing of the U.S. Capitol Building in Washington, D.C. along with the St. Matthew's Cathedral funeral program, mass cards, eulogies, photos, film footage, funeral remembrances from around the world and notes from Jacqueline Kennedy about how the funeral was to be arranged. For more information, visit www.jfk.org.

Arlington Ride-Share Program

Via Rideshare started last month with a fleet of 10 sleek, black Mercedes Benz vans that can each hold up to six passengers. Via replaced the bus service, MAX, which ended on December 31. Most Arlington residents can catch a ride on Via through a smartphone App (available for iPhone and Android devices). Although similar to companies such as Uber and Lyft, Via is different in that passengers are sharing the rides with others. The tradeoff in the lack of privacy means a far cheaper price. It could also mean walking a block or two to be picked up or dropped off rather than curbside service.

Rides will cost $3 one way, and will initially have a small footprint in the entertainment district, including Six Flags Over Texas, Globe Life Park, AT&T Stadium, downtown Arlington, and the University of Texas at Arlington. It will also take passengers to the CentrePort/DFW Airport Trinity Railway Express Station. The service area will expand over the next several months to eventually include the Parks Mall and Arlington Highlands by summer. This program will not serve Arlington residents who live north of I-30.

The four rules for riding in a Via van are to be ready and waiting; avoid phone calls; do not eat or drink; and be considerate. Hours of operation will be 7am-9pm (Monday-Friday) and 9am-9pm (Saturday). The service will not operate on Sunday. Customers can call or text 817-784-7382 if they have questions or need support from Via. For more information about this program, visit ridewithvia.com.
